

“Somewhere Over There.”

Elmer Williams, grandson of D C Williams, Scottville, writes to Miss Clyde Williams as follows;

Dear Clyde---Will drop you a few lines today. Hope you are well, and all the rest of the people. I am in the hospital; I got wounded at the front on July 15th, but am getting along all right, Tell the old man I will write him soon. Answer soon.

Originally published in the Alleghany Star. Reprinted with permission from the Alleghany News.